The Illinois Press Visitors.

The Illinois Press association met at the Ebbitt house yesterday morning, at 8:30

The littices frees association metal the Ebbitt house yesterday morning, at 8:30 o'clock. They visited the government printing office as guests of Mr. Rounds and Mr. Cadet Taylor, who, with the assistance of the "Arion" quartette, entertained them two hours. At 10 o'clock they visited the Corcorna art gallory, and attorward repaired to the east room of the executive mansion, where they were cordially received by President Arthur and the cabinet. This is perhaps the only instance in which a delegation of Press excursionists has been received by the President and cabinet. At 1 o'clock they took street cars to the capitol and botanical gardens. Last night they visited Ford's opera house as guests of Mr. Ford and Miss Ober, manager of the Beston Ideal opera company. They will meet at the Ebbitt house this morning at 8:30 and take carriages at 9 o'clock for a drive, visiting the interior and postoffice departments, museum, &c. At the navy yard they will board the United States steamer Despatch at 11 o'clock for a trip down the Potomac, taking in Mount Vernon. A lunch will be served on board the Despatch provided by the committee on entertainment. In the evening they will attend the National theater as guests of Mr. J. W. Albaugh and Mr. W. J. Florence, who will present "Facts; or, his Little Hatchet."

Assistant Chief Engineer Matthew Brady, of the San Fr. netseo fire department, says: "I have been subject to an aggravating pain in my chest for over four years. Two weeks ago I commenced using St. Jacobs OII; it has cured me.

Mr. Jones Acquitted. The case of Isaac Jones and other member of the "Americus" club, for keeping a gam-bling house, was heard in the police court bling house, was heard in the police court yesterday. The club was raided by the police continued for Tuesday and Wednesday, February 5 and 6. "Any of the goods on the eighteenth of January, and their iron safe broken open. The prosecuting attorney was occupied in examining witnesses, of which there are a large number, including nearly all of the sporting men. The case called about 3 o'clock, when Mr. Coyle came into court and stated that he would dismiss the charges against Isaac Jones and eight others for keeping a gambling house, and charge Isaac Jones alone under the second section of the law for allowing a gaming table to be set up in his premises. The case against Mr. Jones was heard, and after the examination of several witnesses the court decided that the proof was not strong enough and dismissed the case.

Lewis, Iowa.—Dr. M. J. Davis says: 'Brown's Iron Bitters give the best of satis-action to those who use it."

Mrs. Foley's Funeral.

The remains of the late Mrs. Kate Foley, daughter of Mr. Hugh McCaffrey, and wife of Lieut. Foley, of the United States navy, were Lieut. Foley, of the United States navy, were buried from St. Peter's Catholic church yesterday. The funeral services were conducted by Father O'Sullivan. The church was crowded, and the audience was reminded that about sixteen months ago they had assembled there to witness her marriage. The pailbearers were Messrs. T. Smith, P. Clavelaux, P. Maloñey, W. Harbin, D. Craven, and F. P. Maloñey, W. Harbin, D. Craven, and F. P. Madigan—several of the ushers on the occasion of her marriage. The remains, followed by a large number of relatives and friends, were taken to Mount Olivet and interred.

When one is sick advice is plenty, but not always the best. A good rule is to necept only such medicines as after long years of trial have proved worthy of confidence. This is a case where other people's experience may be of great service, and it has been the experience of flou-ands that Ayer's Cherry Perioral is the best cough medicine ever used.
